9:00 – 9:30 Update on any other follow up from 11th SEA RCRC Leadership Meeting 2014
- Follow up of Singapore Meeting Recommendations and Action points – Benjamin William

Explanatory Notes: Besides the Lessons learned the proposal is to have two sessions related to issues of general interest and concern to the Movement and also could impact on us working in the new humanitarian environment. The topic on population movement includes issues such as migration, displaced people and human trafficking. Many SEA NSs are confronting with this issue. The topic on inter-cultural dynamics revolves around the humanitarian challenges arising from ethnic and religious tensions and extremism. The varied ethnic and religious mix of the communities in SEA mean that intercultural dynamics is a significant factor to consider in all our humanitarian actions and services. One session will be led by ICRC and the other by IFRC.

9:30 – 10:45 Population Movement Issues (Migration, Human trafficking, Smuggling, etc.)
