

CHILD PROTECTION AT THE IFRC

online briefing

What will I learn by taking this online briefing?

You will learn:

- why the IFRC has a Child Protection Policy
- the definition of “child protection”
- the main elements of the policy and your responsibilities
- when and how to report child protection concerns
- practical actions that can be taken at a personal level, or in your organization, or within community programs

What are the key messages of the Child Protection Policy?

They key messages are:

- violence against children is never acceptable, and it is preventable
- child protection is a minimum standard in our work in development and emergency settings
- all Red Cross Red Crescent personnel have a responsibility to protect children
- tools and technical support are available to integrate child protection within programming

Who can I report to if I have a concern about a child's safety within my own operations?

You can report concerns to:

- your line manager
- a senior manager
- Human Resources
- Safe Call, a global hotline available for IFRC personnel:
 - +442076965652
 - ifrc@safecall.co.uk
 - www.safecall.co.uk/confidentail-contact.php

► To take the online briefing, visit <https://ifrc.csod.com/client/ifrc/default.aspx>

