

Partnership

Key counterparts in various government agencies and frequency of meeting

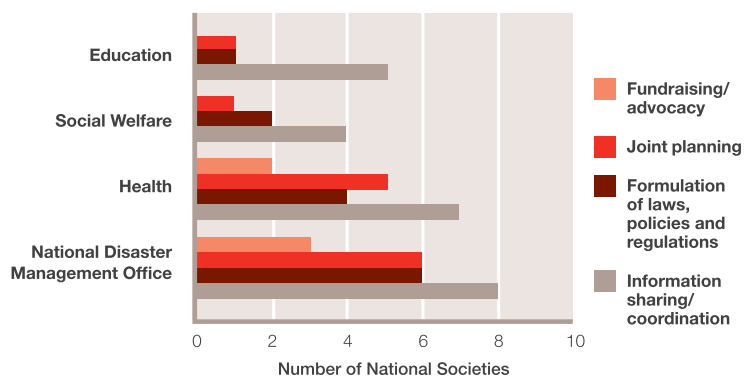

QUOTES FROM NATIONAL SOCIETIES

Other key counterparts:

- Other government agencies (Rural Developments, Nature and Environment Department and Prime Minister's office or Home Affairs);
- Bilateral development agencies;
- UN Agencies, Partner National Societies, NGOs;
- Private sectors (Nestle, Indomart, Alfamart, Samsung, Zurich, Sido Muncul, ConocoPhillips, etc);
- Academia and other networks.

Purpose of meeting with various government agencies

Meeting with ASEAN

The top 3 benefits of engaging with ASEAN:

"1. Strengthen capacities and coordination. 2. Reaffirm and strengthen the roles and images of Red Cross and Red Crescent. 3. Develop joint implementing plans/programs."

"Strong partnership with ASEAN & AHA Centre is a must. It will contribute to ASEAN community spirit."

"Information sharing and idea exchange, capacity building and learning experiences."

The survey was conducted in May 2015 for the purpose of mapping the priorities, initiatives and capacity of South-East Asia National Societies, in preparation for the Regional Community Safety and Resilience (CSR) Forum. The results of the survey are published in a series of charts: Integrated Approach and Regional Road Map, Response Preparedness, Gender and Diversity, Disaster Law, Partnership, and Learning and Sharing – Social Media and Online Library. A survey report is available on the South-East Asia Red Cross Red Crescent societies online library.

DISCLAIMER: The graphs only represent 8 out of 11 National Societies in the South-East Asia. These graphs are the result of self-assessment exercise conducted by National Societies and are NOT the result of any external evaluation.