Using the Auxiliary Role to Influence Policy and Practice

Opportunities to Strengthen NS Engagement/ Influence and Profile – particularly on climate change

What is happening in your country – where are the processes at in terms of NAPS/ NDCS/ DRR Strategies

Identify areas and activities your NS could be engaged in. what is your value add?

Who do you need to influence?
Who should you partner with?

Tactics for taking forward messages [meetings, committee roles etc; public advocacy

Use Regional and Global Milestones to support National Advocacy Efforts

- May 2017 – Global Platform on DRR (Cancun, Mexico) – [Sendai Monitor, disaster loss and damage, involve in national /local DRR strategies, profile work of NS In national Statements
- November 2017 – COP23 (Bonn, Germany)
- July 2018 – Asian Ministerial Conference on DRR (Mongolia)

National Reviews of NAPs; NDCS (every 5 years) National Development plans (5/ 10 years) ; DRR Strategies (5 years)

The end game: resilient communities!

Delegation Discussions and Activity

- Completion of Mapping Exercise (is there a national DRR platform in your country? Is your NS active in this platform? Does your country have a National Adaptation Plan? Is your NS involved in this process?)
- Completion of Global Agenda Engagement Plan @ National Level
