Gaps and Way Forward

- Mobilization of disaster Management fund - contributed from different sources including private sector
- Institutionalization of the learning, guidelines, to permanently train new trainers on CBDRM/A and technical supporting & community groups

Gaps and Way Forward

- Establish a consistent training mechanism from national to community level
- Capacity building for TSG and community groups for supporting participatory CBDRM in NDPC planning and response plan, take into account Gender & at-risk groups
- Promote technology in disaster risk management (especially in urban context)
- Strengthen legal framework to mobilize resources from stakeholders (esp. private sector & local ppl)

Success Factors

DIPECHO support is per phase

1. Build evidences and capacity
2. Create momentum and advocacy to influence government's approach – via consortium
3. Bring in cross cutting issues – keep reviewing approaches and improving tools based on experiences. To fit the projects in legal framework & national strategy and answer to specific needs in terms of capacity
4. Cross learning with other countries (BUR project: 4 countries)

Success Factors

1. Awareness of leaders at all levels to set legal framework and support implementation of activities
2. Establishment of forum, symposium, working groups for all related stakeholders (incl. Government departments, (I)NGOs, mass organizations, research agencies...) for sharing info, cooperation, resource mobilization following consistent strategy of the government
3. Mobilize and maintain sustainable resources (D.M fund)
4. Apply technology in DRM

Success Factors

5. TSG & community groups are established, trained are capable of carrying out activities
6. Advocate for integration of CBDRM into school curriculum and strengthen School Safety framework, especially ethnic minorities and inclusive school for disabled children
7. Continuous technical n funding support from (I)NGOs and donors
8. Active engagement in international framework/ platform (Sendai, Paris agreement, AADMER)
