

Southeast Asia Leaders Meeting 2023

Session 8: Update on SEA networks and Advancing Women's leadership

Time: 11:00 – 12:00pm
Date: 22 September 2023
Chaired by: Lao RC

Expected outcomes

- Updates on the SEA networks and make decisions in relation to any recommendations from the networks, including rotation of chairs
- Update on the outcomes of the first SEA Conference for Women Leaders, hosted by Singapore Red Cross and discuss and the proposed recommendations and other decision to advance women's leadership in SEA.

Session Outline

Time	Speaker	Content
11:00 -11:05	Chair	Introduce the session and the objectives, which is in 2 parts, the first part on updates on the SEA networks and the second part on advancing women's leadership in Southeast Asia. Thank all the networks for their work during 2023.
11:05 – 11:15	IFRC	Presentation on summary of SEA network recommendations and reference to the background reports
11:15 – 11:25	CRC	Presentation on ART network review recommendations
11:25 – 11:30	Chair	Open to SEA leaders for comment and decision on any recommendations, including rotation of chair
11:30 – 11:35	Chair	Introduce the second part of the session on advancing women's leadership in SEA and appreciate the effort of Singapore Red Cross in hosting the first Conference for women in SEA
11:35 – 11:50	Singapore Red Cross and PMI	Presentation on the 1 st SEA Women's Conference Presentation on the outcome statement and recommendations
11:50 – 12:00	Chair	Open to SEA Leaders for comment and suggestion
12:00	Chair	Session close and lunch

Background documents

- SEA network reports – PGI network, youth network, CSR network, fundraising network, migration network
- ART network final review report
- 1st SEA Women's Conference Outcome Statement