PREAMBLE

The Malaysian Red Crescent Society ("the Society") is a body corporate incorporated under an Act of Parliament vide the Federation of Malaya (Incorporation) Act, 1962 (No. 4 of 1962), and as replaced by the Malaysian Red Cross Society (Incorporation) Act 1965 (No. 47 of 1965), and as amended by the Malaysian Red Cross Society (Change of Name) Act 1975 (No. 162 of 1975), and as revised as Act 540 in 1995 (the “Act”). Its constitution is based on the Geneva Conventions of 1949, to which the Federation of Malaysia is a party.

The Society is recognized by the Malaysian government as a uniform voluntary relief organization, auxiliary to the public authorities in the humanitarian field and to the medical services of the armed forces. The Society was recognized as a member National Society of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (the ‘Federation’) on 4th July 1963 and was admitted on 28th August, 1963.

The Society, together with other National Societies recognized in accordance with Article 4 of the Statutes of International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement, the Federation and the International Committee of the Red Cross (the ‘ICRC’) constitutes the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement ("the Movement").

CORPORATION RULES

IN EXERCISE OF THE POWERS CONFERRED BY SECTION 9 OF THE ACT, THE NATIONAL COUNCIL HEREBY MAKES THE FOLLOWING RULES:

PART I
INTERPRETATION

1. (a) In these Rules, unless the context otherwise requires:

"the Act" means the Malaysian Red Cross Society (Incorporation) Act, 1965 (previously known as Act 47/65 and revised in 1995 as Act 540) and the Malaysian Red Cross Society (Change of Name) Act, 1975 (Act 162);

"Annual Reports" means the annual reports on the activities of the Society, the States, Districts and/or Chapters as the case may be;
“Secretary General” means the person referred to in Section 7 (2) of the Act and Rule 32 of these Rules;

“Subsidiary Units” means the units established by the National Executive Board or States Committee in accordance with these Rules; and

“Youth” means a person not less than fifteen years and not more than forty years old or as amended from time to time according to Act 668, YOUTH SOCIETIES AND YOUTH DEVELOPMENT ACT 2007;

“Zones” means the regional areas covering specific States approved by the National Council.

(b) In the event of inconsistency between the provisions of the Act and these Rules the provision of the Act prevails.

(c) These Rules may be translated into any language Provided Always that the English text shall prevail in the event of any inconsistency.

(d) The National Council shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of these Rules and as to its application. The decisions of the National Council shall be final and binding on all members.

(e) i) Words and expressions defined in the Act shall have the same meaning when used or referred to these Rules.

ii) Words denoting any gender shall include all gender

(iii) Headings and the index are for ease of reference only and shall not affect the interpretation of these Rules.

PART II
GENERAL PROVISIONS

2. PERSATUAN BULAN SACIT MERAH MALAYSIA (or, in English, the Malaysian Red Crescent Society) (“the Society”) is a body corporate established under Section 3 of the Act.

3. The Society is a component of the International Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement (“the Movement”) and as such is a member of the International Federation of Red Cross and Red Crescent Societies (“the Federation”).
4. The Society adheres to the Fundamental Principles of the Movement and reaffirms the mottos “Inter arma caritas” (in war charity) and Per humanitatem ad pacem” (through humanity to peace) which together express the ideals of the Movement as a whole. The Fundamental Principles of the Movement are as follows:

1. HUMANITY
The Movement, born of a desire to bring assistance without discrimination to the wounded on the battlefield, endeavours, in its international and national capacity, to prevent and alleviate human suffering wherever it may be found. Its purpose is to protect life and health and to ensure respect for the human being. It promotes mutual understanding, friendship, cooperation and lasting peace amongst all people.

2. IMPARTIALITY
The Movement makes no discrimination as to nationality, race, religious beliefs, class or political opinions. It endeavours to relieve suffering of individuals, being guided solely by their needs, and to give priority to the most urgent cases of distress.

3. NEUTRALITY
In order to enjoy the confidence of all, the Movement may not take sides in hostilities or engage at any time in controversies of political, racial, religious or ideological nature.

4. INDEPENDENCE
The Movement is independent. The National Societies, while auxiliaries in the humanitarian services of their governments and subject to the laws of their respective countries, must always maintain their autonomy so that they may be able at all times to act in accordance with the principles of the Movement.

5. VOLUNTARY SERVICE
It is a voluntary relief Movement not prompted in any manner by desire for gain.

6. UNITY
There can be only one Red Cross or one Red Crescent Society in any one country. It must be open to all. It must carry its humanitarian work throughout its territory.

7. UNIVERSALITY
The Movement, in which all Societies have equal status and share equal responsibilities and duties in helping each other, is worldwide.
5. The National Headquarters of the Society shall be at such place as the National Council may decide from time to time.

6. The emblem of the Society shall be a red crescent on a white background and shall be used in accordance with the laws of Malaysia and the Geneva Conventions.

7. Seri Paduka Baginda Yang Di Pertuan Agong shall be the Patron of the Society.

8. The Prime Minister of Malaysia and the Deputy Prime Minister of Malaysia shall be the Honorary President and the Honorary Deputy President of the Society respectively.

9. The National Council shall appoint Honorary Vice-Presidents of the Society from amongst the Ministers of the Ministries responsible for matters connected with the Society.

10. The National Council shall appoint Honorary National Advisors of the Society from amongst persons who have been recognized by the National Council for their outstanding humanitarian works or exemplary services and continuous support of the Society. Provided that not more than ten (10) such persons shall be appointed at any one time.

11. In pursuing the objects and purposes set out in sections 4 and 5 of the Act, it shall be the duty of the Society to further perform the following:

   (a) to maintain a permanent and active uniform organization to save lives, relieve sickness, suffering or distress especially of the casualties of armed conflicts, disasters or other emergencies irrespective of nationality, race, class, sex, creed or political considerations, such organization being capable of rapid mobilization and effective expansion to meet the needs of armed conflicts, disasters or other emergencies or act as auxiliary to the Government in accordance with the National Security Council Directives;

   (b) to promote knowledge of international humanitarian law and the Fundamental Principles of the Movement;

   (c) to contribute to the improvement of health, the prevention of disease and the mitigation of suffering to enable healthy and safe living;

   (d) to promote the formation of States, Districts, Chapters and Subsidiary Units and exercise a control over their work which includes obtaining subscribing members and the raising, training and maintaining these bodies to carry on the various activities of the Society;
(e) to promote and maintain public interest in the works of the Society and to organize appeals for funds;

(f) to co-operate with the Government, local authorities and other voluntary organizations engaged in work similar to that of the Society Provided that the Society retains administrative control over its own funds, personnel and material, and does share, for appeal or other purposes, the Red Crescent name or emblem;

(g) to rely for the running of its administration whenever possible on voluntary contributions and donations and as much as possible to give its services free Provided that the Society may receive income derived from the Society's property (movable or immovable) or investments Provided also that grants in aid may be accepted from the Government, local authorities and private organizations for meeting the expenses of any specified service undertaken by the Society;

(h) to undertake work in accordance with the above mentioned principles and in particular the functions of the protection of the environment and to provide courses of instruction in those subjects which may be open to public;

(i) to take all necessary steps to prevent the illegal use or abuse of the Red Cross/Red Crescent emblem;

(j) to consider and approve in appropriate cases recommendations for the bestowal of distinctions, medals and badges of the Society; the Movement, Federal and State awards and to take all the necessary steps to prevent the unauthorized use of the Society's name, uniform, medals and badges;

(k) to encourage and promote Youth Members, the aims of which are to teach the formation of healthy habits of living, the importance of service to others, the development of sense of social responsibility and the strengthening of the great bond of international friendship existing between Red Cross/Red Crescent Youth Members all over the world.

12. The organizational structure of the Society comprises:

(a) the National Council;
(b) the National Executive Board;
(c) Zones;
(d) States and their State Committees;
(e) Districts and their District Committees;
(f) Chapters and their Chapter Committees; and
(g) the Subsidiary Units.
PART III
MEMBERSHIP

13. Membership of the Society is open to all without any discrimination based on race, sex, class, religious beliefs, language or political opinions. Application for membership must be forwarded to the respective State for consideration.

14. The National Council shall appoint a distinguished person as an Honorary Life Member. He shall be a person who has performed outstanding humanitarian works and has rendered distinguished and exemplary service to the society Provided that the total of such members at any one time shall not exceed one hundred (100).

15. A Life Member shall be a person of eighteen (18) years of age and above who applies and is accepted as such member by the Society upon payment of such amount of subscription fee as may from time to time be fixed by the National Council.

16. An Ordinary Member shall be a person of eighteen (18) years of age and above who applies and is accepted as such member by the Society upon payment of such amount of subscription fee as may from time to time be fixed by the National Council.

17. (i) A Youth Member shall be one of the following persons who applies and is accepted as such member by the Society upon payment of such amount of subscription fee as may from time to time be fixed by the National Council:

(a) a person of not more than twelve (12) years of age and enrolled in a Subsidiary Unit approved by the Society known as the Red Crescent Link; or

(b) a person of not more than eighteen (18) years of age and is a student of the secondary educational institution, and enrolled in a Subsidiary unit approved by the Society known as the Red Crescent Youth, or

(c) a person of 18 years old and above at the time of application shall be accepted as a Member of a Subsidiary Unit of the institution and shall be known as Voluntary Aid Detachment/Chapter Community Volunteer Brigade.

(ii) Any Member of not more than twenty-five (25) years of age may participate in the activities of the International Red Cross/Red Crescent Youth.
18. Upon payment of the subscription fee, all members shall forthwith become Members of the Society and affirm their adherence to these Rules.

19. (a) A register of Members of the Society shall be maintained by the Secretary General at the National Headquarters of the Society.

(b) All States, Districts and Chapters of the Society shall be responsible to keep and maintain a record of all current Members in the respective States, Districts and Chapters which shall be deemed to be part of the register of Members of the Society.

20. Collection of all subscription or membership dues, as the case may be, shall be the responsibility of the States, Districts and Chapters. States may by a resolution in a meeting contribute a certain amount of the collections to the Districts.

21. (a) A Member may resign from membership by giving a written notice or upon expulsion from the Society in accordance with these Rules. Such resignation shall take effect immediately upon the acceptance by the Society.

(b) Any Member of the Society who resigned or whose membership is terminated in accordance with these Rules shall forfeit all rights to or claims upon the Society but shall remain liable for any outstanding payment due at the date of resignation, expulsion or cessation of membership.

22. Any member of the National Council, the National Executive Board, the States Committee, the Districts Committee, the Chapters Committee or such other officer of a Subsidiary Unit appointment by the Society shall cease to be such a member thereof and vacate office if:

(a) he dies or becomes incapable by reason of mental incapacity or unsoundness of mind or ill-health; or

(b) he is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings without leave or valid reason given to the Secretary General.

(c) an Adjudication and Receiving Order in bankruptcy is made against him; or

(d) his resignation by notice in writing has been accepted by the National Executive Board, States Committee or the Districts Committee or Chapters Committee, as the case may be; or
(e) he takes up permanent residence outside Malaysia; or

(f) he is convicted of any criminal offence involving fraud or dishonesty; or

(g) he ceases to be a Member of the Society for any cause or reason whatsoever.

23. (a) A Member affected and aggrieved by any decision under these Rules may within 30 days after such a decision is conveyed to him, appeal in writing to the National Executive Board stating his grounds of appeal against such decision.

(b) The National Council may, in its discretion, review, alter or rescind any decision to expel, terminate or suspend the membership of any Member of the Society and the decision of the National Council shall be final and binding.

PART IV
THE NATIONAL COUNCIL

24. (a) The National Council is the supreme deliberative body with power to regulate, manage and control all the affairs of the Society in accordance with the Act.

(b) The National Council shall be composed of the following:

(i) the Elected members are namely:
   (aa) the National Chairman;
   (bb) two (2) National Deputy Chairmen, of whom one shall be nominated and elected at the Annual General Meeting and the other one shall be appointed by the National Chairman from amongst the elected Vice Chairmen, subject to the approval of the National Executive Board;
   (cc) five (5) National Vice Chairmen, of which four (4) will be nominated and elected at the Annual General Meeting, and one (1) will be appointed by the National Chairman, subject to the approval of the National Executive Board;
   (dd) the National Honorary Treasurer; and
   (ee) eight (8) other elected members of the National Council
   (ff) Five (5) person(s) appointed by the National Chairman on account of his/her knowledge, service and/or expertise, as a member of the Society but must not be amongst family members of the National Chairman. The nominated officials shall have all voting rights conferred to the elected officials. For the purpose of this Rule, "a family member of the National Chairman shall include his spouse, parent, child (including adopted child and Stepchild), brother, sister and the spouse of his child, brother or sister".

(ii) two (2) appointed representatives of each State from amongst the State Chairman, the State Deputy Chairmen, the State Vice-Chairmen, State Director, State Hon. Secretary, State Hon. Treasurer, or the Youth representative.

(iii) Ex-officio non voting members namely:

(aa) the Head of the Medical Services of the Malaysian Armed Forces;

(bb) the Head of the Malaysian Medical Association;

(cc) representatives from the Ministries responsible for matters connected with the Society, as determined by the National Executive Board; and

(dd) the Secretary General or the Executive Secretary, as the case may be.

(c) Casual vacancies in the ranks of elected National Council members may be filled by election at any ordinary meeting of the National Council.

(d) The election of members of the National Council shall be held once in every three (3) calendar years, at the Annual General Meeting of the Society. Candidates for such election may be nominated only by incumbent members of the National Council.

(e) The term of office of all elected members of the National Council shall be three (3) years. It shall commence at the close of the session of the Annual General Meeting at which such members have been elected and shall expire at the next Annual General Meeting at which an election of members of the National Council takes place.
For the purpose of carrying out the objectives of the Society, the National Council shall exercise all such powers that are in conformity with the Act and in particular shall have power to:

(a) administer and carry out the objectives of the Society and may delegate such powers as it may consider necessary;
(b) control the finances and properties of the Society;
(c) fix and change the subscription dues;
(d) consider and accept or otherwise:
